CONTAINER CORPORATION OF AMERICA
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, MARCH 2, 1944

TO THE STOCKHOLDERS OF
CONTAINER CORPORATION OF AMERICA

We submit herewith the Annual Report of Container Corporation of America for the year ended December 31, 1943, including the Auditors' Certificate, a Consolidated Balance Sheet, and Summaries of Consolidated Profit and Loss and Surplus Accounts. In compliance with Security and Exchange Commission proxy rules, advice is hereby given that proxies for the annual stockholders meeting will be requested within a few days. It is expected that the proxy statement will be mailed to stockholders on March 7, 1944.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

PROFIT AND LOSS. Consolidated net profit for 1943 after appropriating $700,000 for a war and postwar reserve amounted to $2,184,054 compared with $2,401,748 for 1942, equivalent to $2.80 and $3.07 per share respectively on each of the 781,253 outstanding shares of capital stock.

Quarterly earnings per share were:

|------------------|---------------|
| 1st Quarter..... | $.48 |
| 2nd Quarter..... | .58 |
| 3rd Quarter..... | .68 |
| 4th Quarter..... | 1.06* |
| | $2.80 |

*After adding year end adjustments representing $.33 per share.

These respective earnings are net after administrative charges, interest, and provision for depreciation, bad and doubtful accounts, local and Federal taxes including excess profits taxes. It should be noted, however, that there was no war and postwar reserve appropriation in 1942; therefore net profits, on a comparable basis, were $2,884,054 for 1943 vs. $2,401,748 for 1942 or $3.69 vs. $3.07 per share. A comparative summary of operating results for the last three years follows:

*Net after deduction of $740,000 in 1943 and $601,000 postwar refund in 1942.
Note—Italics denote red figures.

Depreciation was again provided at the same rates used in the preceding year and resulted in depreciation charges against operations of $1,382,495. This was the gross amount added to the depreciation reserve account. The accumulated depreciation on those assets high rate of operations of all properties, and finally the higher unit cost of materials and labor for all repair and maintenance purposes.

Provision for Federal income and excess profits taxes after postwar credit was estimated at $7,500,000 or $9.60 a share of outstanding stock. For the determination of excess profits tax both the parent Company and the consolidated subsidiary, Pioneer Paper Stock Company, used the average earnings basis. As mentioned in the financial statements, a claim for refund of excess profits taxes for prior years has been filed under Section 722 of the Internal Revenue Code.

The relative proportion of net sales accounted for by net profit, depreciation, factory supplies and expense, raw materials, labor, selling, administrative and general expense, and local and Federal taxes is set forth in the appended diagram and table. Net profit earned in 1943 was 9.6% on the average capital (capital stock and surplus) employed during the year.

which were either sold or retired during the year amounted to $78,204 and was deducted from this account. Accordingly, the net increase in the depreciation reserve for the year was $1,304,291.

Profit on capital assets sold or retired aggregated $38,108; this was included in the year's profit and loss account.

Expenditures of $2,838,817 were made for the repair and maintenance of buildings, machinery and equipment, and this was all charged against operating costs. In recent years repair and maintenance expense has been higher than formerly, first because of additional properties, secondly the New Dacca-Vapo-Pak for frozen foods, designed for home and locker plant use.

During the year working capital increased $1,507,112. Because of the increase in total volume of business done and in price levels there were increases in receivables and inventories. Receivables at the year end represented about sixteen days of sales.

You will note that your Company has on hand $9,068,820 of Treasury Notes, Tax Series C, which is sufficient to provide for Federal income and excess profits tax liabilities. In addition there were on hand as at the close of the year $447,061 of Treasury Notes and War Bonds.

The sources of funds and their disposition is set forth in the following application of funds statement:

Funds provided from the following sources.

| Net increase in deferred charges..... | 163,743 |
| Additions to plant and equipment..... | 742,477 |
| | $4,393,237 |

Incoming funds were expended principally for the following:

1. Dividends of $1.50 a share, or $1,171,879, were paid.
2. Capital expenditures of $742,477 were made for the further improvement of, and additions to property. During the year an option was exercised for the purchase of the two-machine paper mill, and land and buildings at Wilmington, Delaware. This investment amounted to $221,597. The Wilmington mill had been under lease since May 1939.

3. Increase in working capital of $1,507,112.

A comparison of balance sheets, summary of profit and loss accounts, record of dividends, and interest on formerly existing funded debt, book value of capital stock, and earnings per share on the outstanding stock, appear in a twelve-year comparison on Pages 20 to 23.

CAPITALIZATION. There was no change in the number of shares of outstanding capital stock, which remained at 781,253 shares. At the close of the year the Company had 8,595 stockholders of record, which represented 8,271 individual holders and 324 holders who were either brokers or companies. Consequently there were probably a very much larger number of individual holders than the figures indicate, but it is impossible to estimate accurately how many individual holdings are represented by brokers. The largest individual holder owned less than 5% of the outstanding shares. Approximately 50% of the outstanding shares were held by shareholders who owned from 1 to 200 shares each.

SURPLUS. The year's profit of $2,184,054 was credited and dividend payments of $1,171,879 were charged against earned surplus. The net addition to earned surplus from profits for the year 1943 was $1,012,175. However, a charge of $108,192 was made against this account for renegotiation of contracts applicable to the year of 1942. Earned surplus at the year end was $6,941,863.

OPERATIONS

The following tabulation indicates the number of tons of paperboard and pulp produced in the paper and pulp mills of your Company and also the number of tons of finished product shipped by its mills and box factories to customers.

| | Tons Produced in Mills | Tons Finished Product Shipped |
|-----------|---------------------------|----------------------------------|
| 1934..... | 300,424 | 312,830 |
| 1935..... | 373,399 | 382,381 |
| 1936..... | 428,627 | 441,086 |
| 1937..... | 391,270 | 390,496 |
| 1938..... | 346,616 | 361,820 |

Again a substantial tonnage of paperboard was fabricated and shipped by your Company's box and container factories which was not produced by your Company's mills but purchased from outside sources. This accounts for the larger number of tons of finished product shipped than the tons produced.

The chief expenditures for capital improvements, additions and acquisitions were as follows:

1. Acquisition of the two-machine paper mill at Wilmington, Delaware.
2. A large number of machines and miscellaneous equipment was purchased for the box shops and fabricating plants, and mechanical parts were added here and there to paper mills.
3. Very considerable improvements were made throughout most of the operating properties to provide better facilities for employees; this included wash rooms, locker rooms, cafeterias and restaurants, improved first-aid and employment office facilities, etc. As is mentioned later in this report the average number of men and women employed in the factories has risen to a new peak, and the percentage of women has also increased sharply; for both of these reasons expanded and improved facilities were necessary.

E R R A T U M

Percent of increase in consolidated net sales

SALES

Consolidated net sales in 1943 amounted to $61,163,685 or an increase of 12.3% over net sales of $49,533,239 in 1942. The increase in unit volume was 4%. The ratio of net profit on sales after taxes but before war and postwar reserve was only slightly less than the 4.8% of the previous year.

Once more the Sales Research, Technical and Laboratory Research, and Art Departments were kept very busy in war development work and also in the redesign of certain essential civilian requirements. Beyond this these particular departments are also devoting some time and effort to postwar and peace time planning.

AFFILIATED AND SUBSIDIARY COMPANIES

The Sefton Fibre Can Company, St. Louis, Missouri, manufacturer of paper cans with either tin or paper tops and bottoms, earned a profit of $105,386 after all charges. A 5% dividend on the outstanding preferred stock and a 50c per share dividend on the common stock were paid.

This Company continued to operate for the Ordnance Department, on a management fee basis, a plant in Memphis, Tennessee which produced and shipped a very substantial quantity of tubes for shells to the U. S. Government. The balance sheet and profit and loss figures for Sefton Fibre Can Company are not included in the consolidated data contained in this report because Container Corporation does not own all of the outstanding capital stock of this Company.

The wholly owned subsidiary, Pioneer Paper Stock Company, continued to operate its waste paper business at a profit. As every one knows, there is a very acute shortage of waste paper, partly due to the tremendous consumption of this commodity by many types of paper mills and partly due to the fact that such a huge amount of paper containers is being shipped across the seas where the re-collection of the used containers as new raw material for domestic paper mills has presented a serious problem. There have been many waste paper collection drives all over the country, but even in spite of these efforts the shortage still remains serious and critical. It therefore remains the patriotic duty of every individual and corporation to do everything possible to see that waste paper is saved and brought back as a raw material to paper mills whose ability to fill war and essential civilian requirements depends upon the availability of an adequate supply of waste paper and pulp wood.

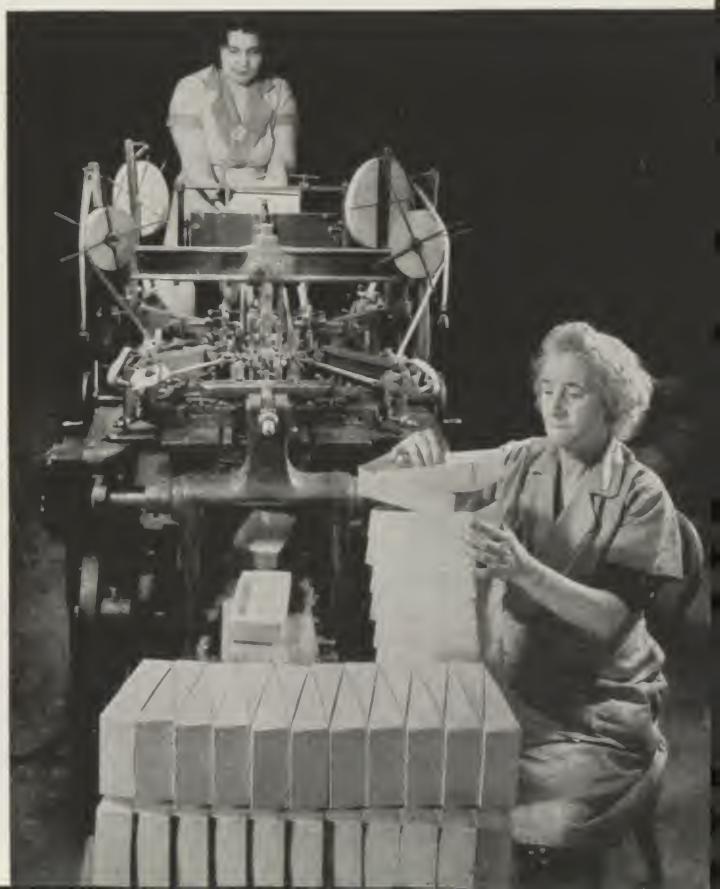

During 1943, your Company contributed about $100,000 to the Conservation Committee of the Waste Paper Consuming Industries. A large proportion of the Paperboard Industry participated in this worthwhile effort to publicize the critical condition existing and to increase the saving and collection of waste paper. The American Newspaper Publishers' Association was extremely helpful in cooperating with the Paperboard Industry in this drive.

In addition to the above mentioned contribution, your Company also expended some $25,000 to run its own advertisements in 123 newspapers and paid for "spot" announcements on various radio chains.

Women are employed where possible. In the background, a corner taping machine for set-up box trays and covers.

WAR WORK

Much of your Company's capacity is now required by direct and indirect war needs. Not only the actual shells, cartridges, airplane and mechanized equipment parts, rifles, small arms, gas masks, etc., etc., must be packed in containers to insure safe delivery overseas and to domestic training camps, but also the food and clothing for soldiers, sailors and marines, the equipment of the Medical Corps, instruments for engineers, and many other essential war products must likewise be packaged and shipped in containers. Finally, the remaining capacity of the mills and box factories of your Company is strained to the maximum in order to supply the necessary packages for the essential civilian needs of the population; this again includes food and clothing containers for defense workers in addition to the average man on the street.

A renegotiation settlement for 1942 was made with the War Department (Chicago Ordnance District) and since the first of the year approved by the War Department, Price Adjustment Board in Washington. It involved an adjustment of $108,192 after taxes. This amount was charged against earned surplus. It is indeterminable at this time what renegotiation adjustment, if any, may be required for 1943.

The workers at the Philadelphia plant were awarded an Army-Navy "E" in May, 1943, and in the fall of the year received the further honor of the six months' star for continued excellence of performance on important war work.

EMPLOYEE RELATIONS

At the end of the year approximately 6400 men and women were employed in the mills and factories of your Company. From the frontispiece you will note that about 1500 former members of the Container Family are now in military service. The percentage of women employees has now risen to 32%. A constant contact with those in uniform was maintained through the medium of the regular sending of cigarettes, factory magazines, house organs and personal letters. At Christmas time, a cash gift was sent to every former Container employee who had left the Company for military service. For the men and women now in the employ of your Company, better factory facilities have been provided as previously noted in this report. Also employee family hospitalization coverage was added during the year to the group insurance plan. The group life, accident and sickness, surgical care and hospitalization insurance continued in full force.

RETIREMENT ANNUITY PLAN. Well over 80% of all eligible men and women employed in your Company participate in the retirement annuity plan. In 1943 the employees as a group and your Company each provided $188,412; contributions by and on account of the executive officers aggregated 5.8%, while 94.2% was contributed by and on account of all other employees. Your Company's 1943 payment on account of past service annuities amounted to $112,200; in accordance with provision of the retirement annuity plan these annuities become payable only upon retirement. During the year the Equitable Life Assurance Society purchased annuities for the benefit of those older employees who first approached the retirement age; of the total amount of annuities purchased 96.3% this year applied to employees in general and 3.7% to executive officers.

MANAGEMENT PROFIT SHARING PLAN

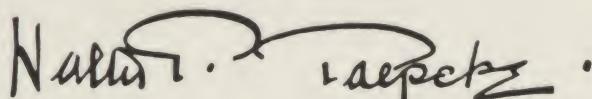

In 1940 the shareholders at their annual meeting approved a management profit sharing plan. While under this plan for the year of 1943 $1,356,598 would have been payable, the nonparticipating directors charged with the final determination of the profit sharing fund ruled that, under the unusual conditions now prevailing, the amount to be distributed be limited to $287,650, compared with $267,750 in the preceding year. Profits for 1943 before war and postwar reserve were $1,802,306 higher than for the preceding year before taxes and $482,306 after taxes. The nonparticipating directors allocated the fund for 1943 as follows: 17.4% to the president, 41.7% to the four vice-presidents, 40.9% to fifty-eight other employees including the treasurer and secretary.

ORGANIZATION

During 1943 there were no changes made in your Company's officers or their respective responsibilities. The Board of Directors again wishes to record its appreciation for the conscientious and intelligent cooperation of all members of the organization.

Submitted on behalf of the Board of Directors.

Respectfully,

President

NOTES:

(1) The company has filed or will file claims for relief from a portion of its excess-profits tax for the years ended December 31, 1940, 1941, 1942 and 1943 under Section 722 of the Internal Revenue Code. The effect of such claims has not been reflected in the accompanying financial statements, nor has any consideration been given thereto in determining the provision for Federal taxes on income for the current year.

(2) The company has concluded a settlement with respect to renegotiation of war contracts for the year ended December 31, 1942. The effect, if any, which renegotiation proceedings may have upon the net profit for the year ended December 31, 1943 is not expected to be relatively significant.

To the Stockholders of

Container Corporation of America:

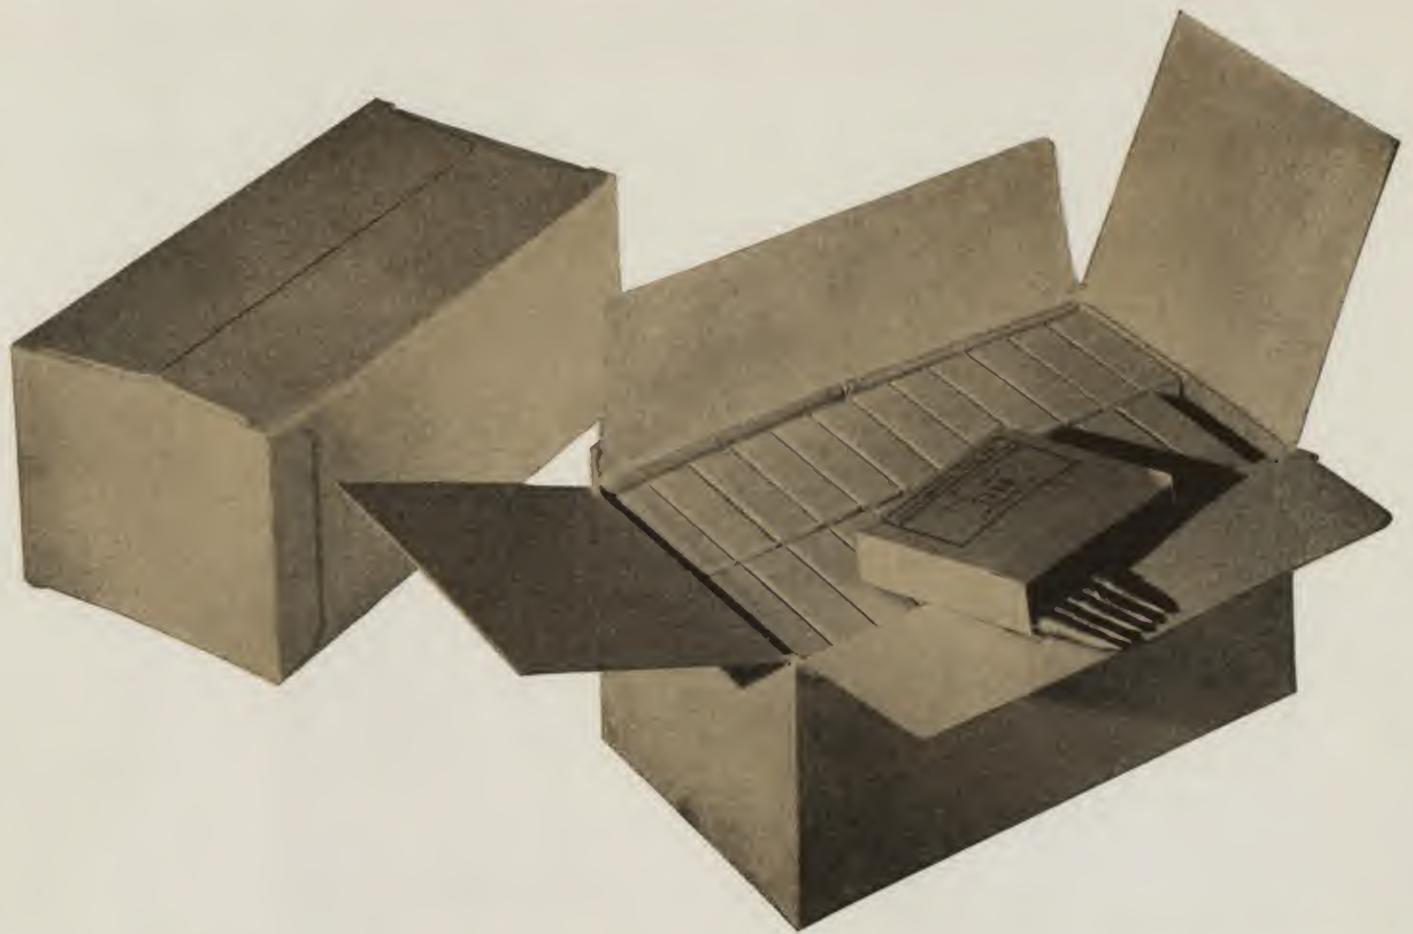

We have examined the consolidated balance sheet of CONTAINER CORPORATION OF AMERICA and subsidiaries as of December 31, 1943, and the summaries of consolidated profit and loss and surplus for the year then ended, have reviewed the system of internal control and the accounting procedures of the companies and, without making a detailed audit of the transactions, have examined or tested accounting records of the companies and other supporting evidence, by methods and to the extent we deemed appropriate. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards applicable in the circumstances and included all procedures which we considered necessary.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated balance sheet and related summaries of consolidated profit and loss and surplus present fairly the position of the companies at December 31, 1943, and the results of their operations for the year, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.
